

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

-v-

TIA JASPER,

Defendant.

18 Cr. 390-18 (PAE)

ORDER

PAUL A. ENGELMAYER, District Judge:

Upon the application of defendant Tia Jasper, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3582(c)(1)(A) for compassionate release from custody in light of the current COVID-19 pandemic, Dkt. 438, and the Government's response thereto, Dkt. 440, the Court ordered the defendant be released forthwith and immediately commence the defendant's term of supervised release, Dkt. 441. The Court previously ordered that the defendant spend the first six months of her term of supervised release on home confinement. With respect to the defendant's conditions of home confinement, and after consultation with the parties and with the Probation Department, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The defendant shall serve the first six months of supervised release on home detention and reside at the residence in the Bronx, New York, which was referenced in the Court's April 6, 2020 Order, Dkt. 441, or at a residence approved by the Probation Department. The defendant shall be permitted to leave only for medical appointments, visits with counsel, and to attend to needs of her children, or as otherwise authorized in advance by the Probation Department. These conditions will be enforced by GPS monitoring.

2. In light of the COVID-19 pandemic, for the first 14 days following the defendant's release from custody, the defendant shall self-quarantine at the residence in the Bronx, New York, which was referenced in the Court's April 6, 2020 Order, Dkt. 441. The defendant shall not leave the residence except as authorized in advance by the Probation Department on a showing of medical need.

3. After the first 14 days following the defendant's release from custody has expired, the defendant must remain at her approved residence except to seek any necessary medical treatment, visits with counsel, and to attend to needs of her children, in each instance with prior notice and approval by the Probation Department.

4. The defendant shall possess or have access to a telephone that will allow video conferencing with the Probation Department.

5. The defendant shall report to the Probation Department at 500 Pearl Street, 6th Floor, on April 22, 2020, at 11 a.m. in order for the defendant to obtain a GPS ankle bracelet.

6. The Probation Office is directed to immediately alert the Court, the Government, and defense counsel of any violation of the above conditions, without need for a formal violation petition. The defendant is hereby notified that violation of these terms of supervised release may result in the revocation of supervised release.

7. This Order is subject to modification by the Court at any time.

SO ORDERED.
